THE 1986 OAKLAND ATHLETICS

MANAGER AND COACHES

42 JACKIE MOORE MGR

Jackie Spencer Moore
1986 Opening Day Age: 47
Born: Jay, Florida, February 19, 1939
Height: 6-0 Weight: 188
Named as A's manager May 24, 1984

In his first full season as a major league manager, Jackie Moore guided the A's to a 77-85 record in 1985. The mark equalled Oakland's record of 1984, in which Moore piloted the club for the final 118 games, winning 57 and losing 61 (.483). The 1985 season greeted Moore with three straight losses against the Seattle Mariners in the Kingdome. Things got better from that point, though, and the A's found themselves just one game out of first place after a 4-3 win in Kansas City July 1st. That, however, turned out to be as close as the Oakland club would get to the top in 1985. A rocky second half of the season saw the A's fall out of the championship race before finally tying with the Minnesota Twins for the fourth spot in the American League's Western Division.

After 14 years of coaching in the big leagues, Jackie received his first major league managerial assignment when he was handed the reins of the Oakland A's on May 24, 1984. He took over for Steve Boros, who led the team to a 20-24 record. Jackie made his managerial debut at the Coliseum May 25th, leading the A's to brawl-filled 10-7 win over the New York Yankees.

Moore had managed for roughly 2½ years in the minor leagues before getting his shot at the bigs. He piloted the Toronto Maple Leafs in their final days of the 1967 season, Jackie's last year as a player. In 1968, Jackie took over leadership of Jamestown in the New York-Penn League and stayed there through the 1969 season. Six years later, Jackie guided Pittsfield through the second half of the 1975 Eastern League season.

Moore started his coaching career after catching for 11 years in the minor leagues and 21 games for the Detroit Tigers in 1965. Jackie was the Opening Day catcher for the Tigers that year due to an injury that sidelined Bill Freehan. Jackie was considered an outstanding defensive catcher with an excellent working knowledge of the game. The Milwaukee Brewers noted this and hired Jackie as a coach in 1970. He joined the Texas Rangers' staff in 1973 and was with that club through the 1976 season. He then moved to Toronto to help instruct the expansion Blue Jays. Jackie spent three years with Toronto, coaching at both first and third base. Following the 1979 season, Jackie returned to the Rangers for the 1980 campaign before joining the A's as their first base coach in 1981. He remained in that capacity until being named manager in 1984.

Jackie enjoys hunting, fishing and golf during his off hours. He resides in Arlington, Texas, with his wife, Joann. Jackie is the father of four children, Debbie, Sherry, Jack, Jr. and Wanda.

45 BOB DIDIER COACH

Robert Daniel Didier
1986 Opening Day Age: 37
Born: Hattiesburg, Mississippi, February 16, 1949
Height: 5-11 Weight: 195
Named as an A's coach prior to the 1984 season

As Bob Didier begins his sixth year with the Oakland organization, he will find himself with yet another new role.

After spending three years as a minor league manager for the A's, Bob joined the parent club as its bullpen coach for the 1984 season. Early in that campaign, though, he was moved to the dugout when Jackie Moore replaced manager Steve Boros. After spending the 1985 season in the dugout along

DIDIER, Continued

Didier spent parts of six seasons as a major league player. A top fielding catcher, Didier played four seasons with the Atlanta Braves before finishing his playing career with Detroit and Boston. His last active year was 1976 when he was a player-coach for Richmond of the International League. His most successful season was 1969 at Atlanta when he hit .256 in 114 games for the Braves. He was second among National League catchers with a .994 fielding percentage and was named to the Topps Major League Rookie All-Star Team for that year. He was a member of the Rawlings Silver Glove Team as a catcher for 1972 and 1973; the award honors the top fielding players in the minor leagues. He lists his greatest thrills as a player in this order: Playing with Hank Aaron, catching Hoyt Wilhelm's 1,000th game and throwing out Lou Brock twice in one game. His father, Mel Didier, is a scout for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Didier began his managing career in 1977 for Seattle at Kingsport and led his club to a first place finish in the Appalachian League. He spent two more years in the Seattle system, his San Jose team capturing the California League title in 1979. The following year he took Milwaukee's Vancouver affiliate to the second half title in the Pacific Coast League. Moving to the A's in 1981, he helped the young club at West Haven to the Eastern League title in 1982. He managed the A's Tacoma club in 1983 before taking the coaching position with Oakland for the 1984 season.

Didier graduated from Glen Oaks High School in Baton Rouge and attended Mesa (Arizona) Community College before signing with Atlanta as a fourth round selection in the June, 1967 draft. Bob makes his winter home in Alameda, California. He is married and has one son.

39 DAVE McKAY COACH

David Lawrence McKay
1986 Opening Day Age: 36
Born: Vancouver, British Columbia, March 14, 1950
Height: 6-1 Weight: 195
Named as A's bullpen coach May 24, 1984

Long-time A's fans will be seeing more of a familiar face in 1986 as Dave McKay takes to the first base coaching box for the 1986 season.

Dave joined the A's as a coach in May of 1984 and was assigned to the bullpen to oversee pitchers warming up. He spent the balance of the '84 season and all of the 1985 campaign in the pen. He'll be much more visible at first base this year, his seventh with the Oakland organization.

McKay first came to the A's just before the 1980 season after nine years in the Minnesota and Toronto organizations. He played in 280 games for Oakland from 1980-82 and spent the 1983 season in the minor leagues as a player-coach. He helped the A's capture the 1981 Western Division flag by hitting .288 in the latter half of the year and by smacking a home run in the divisional playoff series against Kansas City. McKay's professional career had begun 10 years earlier when he signed a free agent contract with Minnesota for the 1971 season. He spent four years in the minors before breaking in with the Twins in a big way. He homered off Detroit's Vern Ruhle in his first big league at-bat on August 22, 1975 and went on to hit safely in 21 of his first 22 games. After the 1976 season, the Toronto Blue Jays selected McKay in the expansion draft and he was the starting third baseman in the Jays' first game ever. He tied a major league record in 1978 by drilling two doubles in the same inning of a game. He split time between Toronto and Syracuse in 1979 and was released at the end of that year. He signed with the A's as a free agent April 4, 1980.

He earned a degree in Physical Education from Columbia Basin JC in Pasco, Washington and later attended Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska. Dave was born in Canada and his wife, Lene, is from Denmark.

46 JEFF NEWMAN COACH

Jeffrey Lynn Newman
1986 Opening Day Age: 37
Born: Fort Worth, Texas, Septmember 11, 1948
Height: 6-2 Weight: 215
Named the A's bullpen coach November 1, 1985

The A's have added yet another familiar face to their 1986 coaching staff with the hiring of bullpen coach Jeff Newman.

A veteran of more than nine years of major league service, Jeff made his major league playing debut in 1976 with the A's. Regarded an excellent defensive catcher throughout his career, Jeff spent all of the 1977-82 seasons with the A's before being traded along with outfielder Tony Armas to the Boston Red Sox for infielders Carney Lansford, Garry Hancock, and pitcher Jerome King. Jeff's best year with the A's came in 1979 when he posted career highs with 22 homers and 71 RBIs while earning a spot on the American League All-Star team.

Jeff showed signs of his major league ability at Paschal High in Fort Worth, Texas, earning all-district honors in baseball and basketball. From there it was on to Texas Christian University where Jeff earned a bachelor's degree in education while being named a baseball All-American. Jeff holds TCU records for runs and RBIs in Southwest Conference play and co-holds the school record for conference hits. Jeff was selected by the Cleveland Indians in the 26th round of the 1970 June draft and had a smashing initial campaign in pro ball, hitting .313 with Sarasota while leading the Gulf Coast League with 53 RBIs and tying for the league lead with 6 homers.

Jeff, his wife Diane, and their children Thomas and Jay live in Danville, California.

43 RON PLAZA COACH

Ronald Charles Plaza
1986 Opening Day Age: 51
Born: Passaic, New Jersey, August 24, 1934
Height: 6-0 Weight: 180
Named to the A's coaching staff November 1, 1984

Now in his second year with the Athletics, Ron Plaza likes to teach young players the finer points of baseball. Throughout his long baseball career (spanning more than 30 years), Plaza has picked up a lot of experience teaching youngsters. He also has a good track record, having served as a minor league instructor for the Cincinatti Reds from 1970 through 1977.

Ron then moved to the major league level with the Reds in 1978, coaching at first and third base through the 1983 season. In 1985, his first season with the A's, Ron served as roving hitting instructor along with Bob Watson, traveling across the country to direct Oakland's young prospects throughout the system. Ron's major league coaching career began in 1969 when he served as the first base coach for the expansion Seattle Pilots. Ron began his professional playing career (all in the minor leagues) with Johnson City in 1951. He hit .302 (his career high) with 4 homers and 34 RBIs in 56 games. Ron spent 11 years in the minors, wrapping up his playing career in 1962.

From there it was on to managing in the minors for 10 years, beginning with Billings of the Pioneer League in 1963. Ron's teams won three division championships in those 10 years.

The father of four (Sherry, David, Tina and Allison), Ron and his wife live in St. Petersburg, Florida.

44 WES STOCK COACH

Wesley Gay Stock
1986 Opening Day Age: 51
Born: Longview, Washington, April 10, 1934
Height: 6-2 Weight: 200
Named as the A's pitching coach May 24, 1984

Once again, Oakland's pitchers will work under the watchful eye of Wes Stock, who rejoined the A's coaching staff in May of 1984. The 1986 season measures up to be a challenging one for Stock and his staff of young arms as the A's are looking to youth for success.

Stock was recognized as one of the top pitching coaches in the major leagues when he was with the A's from 1972-76. He joined Oakland in late 1972 so he could take over for retiring pitching coach Bill Posedel the following year. In 1974, with a staff comprised of Hunter, Blue, Holtzman, Fingers and others, the A's led the American League with a 2.95 ERA, gave up 1.75 runs per game in the championship series and 2.05 per game during their third consecutive World Series triumph.

Stock began his coaching career after completing his ninth and final season as a major league pitcher. He served for two years as the New York Mets minor league pitching instructor in 1968 and 1969 before joining the staff of the Milwaukee Brewers in 1970. One of his coaching mates there was current A's manager Jackie Moore. He stayed with the Brewers until joining the A's in 1972. Stock was lured back to his home state by the Seattle Mariners after the 1976 season and served as their pitching coach through the 1981 season. He then took a two-year respite from coaching but still served as a color commentator for Mariner TV broadcasts. The A's re-hired Stock to serve as minor league pitching instructor prior to the 1984 season, and it was from this position that he was elevated to Oakland's pitching coach for the second time.

Stock signed his first professional player contract in 1956 with the Baltimore Orioles after pitching for Washington State University for three years. He led the Norhwest League in strikeouts (182 in 181 innings) and tied for the league lead in winning percentage (14-6, .700) that year. After two years in the military, he made his big league debut in 1959 and pitched for the Orioles until he was traded to the Kansas City A's for Charlie Lau in 1964. He finished his playing days with the A's, retiring after the 1967 season with a 27-13 career record.

Stock is married and has 2 sons. He spends his winters in Tacoma, Washington.

26 BOB WATSON COACH

Robert Jose Watson
1986 Opening Day Age: 39
Born: Los Angeles, California, April 10, 1946
Height: 6-2 Weight: 200
Named as a roving hitting instructor November 1, 1984

Bob Watson begins his second year with the Oakland organization as a roving hitting instructor for major and minor league players. A veteran of more than 16 years in the majors, Bob brings impressive credentials to his task with the A's.

When he retired in 1984, Bob held a .295 career batting average with 184 home runs and 989 RBIs. He began putting together those numbers in 1966 when he appeared in his first major league game with the Houston Astros. Bob spent portions of the next three seasons with the Astros before making it to the majors for good in 1970. Bob hit .272 in 97 games in 1970, and followed that with a .288 mark in 1971 before putting together back-to-back .312 seasons in 1972-73. Bob's average fell to .298 in 1974, but Bob came back to hit a career-high .324 with 18 homers and 85 RBIs in 1975. The following season turned out to be a memorable one for Bob for a couple of reasons. First of all, Bob broke the 100-RBI barrier for the first time in his career with a total of 102. Also in 1976, Bob scored the 1,000,000th run in major league baseball history, scoring the milestone against the San Francisco Giants.

After two more productive years with the Astros (including the 1977 season when he drove in a career-high 110 runs), Bob was traded to the Boston Red Sox during the 1979 season. In 84 games for the BoSox, Bob hit .337 with 13 homers and 53 RBIs. He became the first player to hit for the cycle in both the National and American Leagues when he singled, doubled, tripled and homered in a 10-2 Boston win over Baltimore on September 15, 1977. Bob also hit for the cycle June 24, 1977 against the Giants. Bob signed on with the New York Yankees as a free agent prior to the 1980 season and enjoyed a fine year, hitting .307 with 13 homers and 68 RBIs. Bob hit just .212 in the 1981 season, but hit .340 with 2 homers and 9 RBIs in the playoffs and World Series. Bob was traded to Atlanta during the 1982 season and concluded his career with the Braves, his fourth major league team.

A member of the National League All-Star teams in 1973 and 1975, Bob graduated from Fremont High in Los Angeles and attended Los Angeles Harbor Junior College. He and his wife, Carol, have two children, Keith and Kelly.

PLAYING RULES

Spectator Interference—batter, runner and other runner(s) will be placed at the base(s) which the umpires feel they would have reached with no interference.

Time—ball is dead, play suspended. This sign used when ball is foul, umpire then pointing to foul territory.

Batted Balls Hit Fair or Foul—if fair, umpire points to fair territory—if foul he raises arms overhead (as in "Time" above) and then turns and points to foul territory, and vocally calls "foul."

The A's have won 10 and lost 8 on opening day. At the Coliseum they are 6 and 4, on the road they are 4 and 4.

1985: A LOOK BACK

THE OAKLAND ATHLETICS

1985 Season

Though they remained legitimate contenders for four months last year, in the end the A's finished in fourth place at 77-85, an identical record to 1984. The A's wrapped up first-half play with an 11-2 rout of the Milwaukee Brewers to climb into second place in the Western Division. Oakland was in second place as late as August 5th. The team's high-water mark came on August 10th when it was 10 games over .500 at 59-49. However, the A's lost 26 out of their next 36 games to drop 13 games behind the division leader. Oakland went 46-41 in the first half; 31-44 in the second. The A's were 39-26 during the day and 38-59 at night; 21-24 in one-run games and 20-11 in two-run games; 45-59 vs. righthanders and 32-26 vs. lefthanders; and were 7-10 in extra-inning contests.

HOME RECORD: The A's posted their best home record in five years by winning 43 and losing 36 at the Coliseum. Oakland took 21 out of 37 from the West and 22 out of 42 from the East at home. The A's particularly welcomed visits by Seattle (1-5 vs. Oakland at the Coliseum), Minnesota (1-3), and California (2-4) in the West, and Cleveland (1-5), Milwaukee (2-4) and New York (2-4) in the East.

ROAD RECORD: For the fourth consecutive season the A's finished under .500 (34-49) on the road. Oakland was 33-48 in 1984. However, unlike recent years, the A's fared worse against Western Division rivals on the road than they did against the East. Oakland was 15-26 vs. the West and 19-23 vs. the East. Oakland held no winning record against any Western Division club. Against the East, the A's looked good in Cleveland (4-2) and Milwaukee (5-1), but hideous in New York (1-5). The A's 34 road wins were the most posted by an Oakland club in five seasons.

INJURIES: Once again the A's had more than their fair share of injuries in 1985. Curt Young missed most of the season due to tendonitis in his left shoulder. Carney Lansford missed a good part of the season with an assortment of injuries including a sprained right hip flexor, a bruised left hip and a fractured right wrist. Steve Ontiveros went down for about 10 days in July with a tender elbow. Keith Atherton was on the 15-day disabled list with a severely sprained right ankle. Mickey Tettleton was on the 21-day disabled list with a pinched nerve in his back. Rob Picciolo was on the 21-day disabled list in August with stomach ulcers. Donnie Hill missed the last 35 games of the season with a fractured bone in his right hand.

PITCHING: Though the A's ranked 10th in the American League in team pitching, they were the recipients of several strong individual performances. Chris Codiroli had his best year to date, going 14-14 with a 4.46 ERA. Codiroli was 8-6 over the first half. Reliever Jay Howell successfully replaced Bill Caudill by going 9-8 with a 2.85 ERA and 29 saves. Howell was 8-3 with a 2.00 ERA and 18 saves at the All-Star break. Don Sutton posted a 13-8 record with a 3.89 ERA with the A's before going to California in a late-season deal. Oakland received a shot in the arm from rookies Tim Birtsas, Jose Rijo and Steve Ontiveros. Birtsas went 10-6 in two-thirds of a season. Rijo went 6-4 with a 3.54 ERA in just 12 games. He also struck out 65 in 63 innings. Ontiveros chalked up eight saves and allowed just 45 hits in 74.2 innings. He had a 1.93 ERA. Oakland's ERA was 4.51 in the first half, and 4.41 overall. The A's were 13th in walks and 13th in strikeouts in the A.L.

OFFENSE: For the second year in a row, the A's had one of the most potent offenses in the American League. Oakland was fifth in batting average, fifth in runs scored, third in hits, first in sacrifice hits and sixth in steals. Oakland's 757 runs were second best in A's history—missing the high mark by one run. There were many A's who contributed to the attack in 1985. Dusty Baker hit .268 with 14 home runs and 60 RBIs in 424 at-bats. Mike Davis had his best season, hitting .287 with 24 home runs, 34 doubles, 82 RBIs and 24 steals. Alfredo Griffin also had his best offensive year, hitting .270 with 64 RBIs and stealing 24 bases. Donnie Hill was another who fashioned a career-best season. He hit .285 with 48 RBIs in 393 at-bats. Dave Kingman clubbed 30 home runs and drove in 91 to lead the club in those categories. He also led the A's in game-winning RBIs with 9. Steve Henderson hit .301 in 85 games and was rated the second best pinch-hitter in the A.L. last year. Collectively, the A's finished second in the league in pinch-hitting in 1985.

RELIEF PITCHERS' SAVE RULE

A pitcher is credited with a Save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again can become 40.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON AND LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

TRADING REGULATIONS: Players are available on waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after start of the season; otherwise in reverse order of standings at close of preceding season.

WAIVERS: The intent of the change in Major League Rule 10 (Waivers) is to simplify procedures and eliminate the requirements for waivers except where appropriate. In effect, the rule-change results in treating the two Major Leagues as one, except for the period August 1st (changed from June 15th) until the end of the season. (The August 1st-end of season waiver period has been retained to maintain fair competition for the League Championship.) The basic change allows the assignment of contracts between Major League clubs at all other times without waivers. As a result, it does away with all inter-league trading periods and with League waivers.

THE GAME WINNING RBI

The American League added the "Game Winning RBI" to its official statistics beginning in the 1980 season. The Game Winning RBI is defined as "the RBI which gives a club the lead it never relinquishes." There does not have to be a Game Winning RBI in every game since the winning run can be scored on an error, wild pitch, balk, etc. The Game Winning RBI will be included in official scorer blanks and will be announced in the press box at the end of each game.

NIGHT GAME: DEFINITION

Any game scheduled to start after 6:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain, or for any other reason, it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 p.m., it will be considered a night game.

Twi-night doubleheaders shall be included in doubleheader statistics and shall also be considered two night games.

When afternoon and night games are played on the same date (separate admissions), the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

PHOENIX STADIUM

The A's play all home games at Phoenix Stadium located at 5999 East Van Buren, Phoenix, Arizona 85008. The telephone number at the stadium is (602) 275-8314.

BAY BRIDGE SERIES

The Bay Bridge series was initiated by the Athletics and the San Francisco Giants prior to the 1982 season. The series, made up of one game at both the Oakland Coliseum and Candlestick Park, is scheduled for the final weekend prior to the opening of the regular season. The Giants won both games in the 1982 series, played at Phoenix Stadium due to heavy rains in the Bay Area. The A's swept the series in 1983, but the Giants won both games in 1984. Last year, the teams split the series with the A's posting an 8-5 win in San Francisco and the Giants scoring a 7-5 triumph at the Oakland Coliseum. The series resumes in 1986 with a game at the Coliseum on April 5th to be followed by the series wrap-up on April 6th at Candlestick Park.

A's RADIO-TELEVISION

The Athletics can be seen and heard throughout Northern California and parts of Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico by means of Oakland's radio and television network. The radio flagship station for the sixth consecutive year is KSFO (AM 560) in San Francisco. Bill King and Lon Simmons will call the action for weekend spring training games and contests against San Francisco as well as all 162 regular-season contests.

The A's radio network is augmented once again by Spanish broadcasts. Amaury Pi-Gonzalez and Julio Gonzalez will handle the play-by-play for the sixth year in a row.

The Athletics television network will once again be led by KPIX Channel 5 in San Francisco. The A's television network, which includes KCRA Channel 3 in Sacramento, KHSL Channel 12 in Chico, KAIL Channel 53 in Fresno, KAME Channel 21 in Reno, Nevada, KRLR Channel 21 in Las Vegas, Nevada, KASK Channel 48 in Las Cruces, New Mexico and KUSK Channel 7 in Prescott, Arizona, will televise 33 contests with Bill King, Lon Simmons and Ted Robinson handling the commentary.

OAKLAND ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM

Ground was first broken for the Oakland Alameda County Coliseum on April 15, 1964, with the first stadium event being held there on September 18, 1966. The 1968 season brought the A's to Oakland. The Stadium is three-tiered and features a recessed playing field—28 feet below ground—for easy entry and minimal stair-climbing. It is part of a combination of a major league stadium, multi-purpose area, and adjoining exhibit hall. It now seats 50,219 for baseball.

1985 MINOR LEAGUE REVIEW

For the first time in three years the A's farm system posted a cumulative record below .500 with a 342-369 mark. However, there were many high points to be noted. Modesto made the California League playoffs for the third time in the last four years. In its inaugural campaign, the Huntsville Stars went all the way to win the Southern League Championship. Then there were the many outstanding individual performances by players such as Jose Canseco, Tim Birtsas, Steve Ontiveros, Eric Plunk, Jose Rijo, Rob Nelson, Stan Javier, Darrel Akerfelds, Pete Kendrick and Mark McGwire. Certainly, in terms of player development, 1985 was a successful year for the A's farm system.

TACOMA TIGERS (AAA): Record-wise, 1985 was a disappointing year for the Tigers as they finished ten games under .500 at 66-76. But their record did not reflect the many fine individual performances turned in by Tacoma players. In just 60 games, A's wunderkind Jose Canseco hit .348 with 11 home runs and 47 RBIs. Center fielder Ricky Peters was voted Tacoma's Most Valuable Player for his season-long performance. He finished with a .296 batting average, two homers and 43 RBIs and led the team with 91 walks, 73 runs and a .513 on-base percentage. For good measure, he pilfered 28 bases. Also earning honors was designated hitter Danny Goodwin, who was presented the Big Stick Award for his .291 average and team-high 12 homers and 65 RBIs. Goodwin was also voted the Most Popular Player by the Tacoma fans. Shortstop Keith Thrower made a successful jump from Single-A to Triple-A by hitting .287 with 48 RBIs and 40 steals for the Tigers. Mr. Clutch for Tacoma was infielder Thad Reece, who hit .262 with two homers and 50 RBIs. Eleven of those RBIs were game winners. Tacoma finished with a .263 batting average, good for ninth in the 10-team PCL. Tacoma's pitching staff, on the other hand, was quite respectable. Lefthander Tim Conroy, the only Tiger selected to the PCL All-Star team, went 11-3 with a 3.27 ERA after being sent down from Oakland. In 129 innings, Conroy allowed just 106 hits while walking 71 and striking out 167. Righthander Tim Lambert was named the team's Most Improved Player. After getting off to a dismal start, he came back to even his record at 10-10 while posting a 4.27 ERA. Tacoma's most impressive pitcher was Jose Rijo, he of the blazing fastball and wicked slider. Though he managed only a 7-10 record with Tacoma, he fanned 179 batters in 149 innings and posted a tidy 2.90 ERA. Steve Mura was 7-5 with a 3.65 ERA before getting called up to Oakland. Eric Plunk was 0-5 after getting called up to Tacoma; however, he suffered from a hand injury all the while. Heading the relievers was Jeff Kaiser, who went 4-2 with a 1.75 ERA, Steve Ontiveros, who went 3-0 with a 2.94 ERA before getting called up and Bill Mooneyham who earned six quick saves before being thrust into the starting rotation.

HUNTSVILLE STARS (AA): 1985 was a storybook year for the Huntsville Stars. After all, when it's a new franchise in a new location with a new ballpark and the team responds by winning the League Championship, you can bet folks will be talking about it for years to come. The player they'll never ever forget is, you guessed it, Jose Canseco. All Mr. Canseco did at Huntsville is hit .358 with 25 home runs and 80 RBIs in 58 games. When Canseco departed for greener fences, first baseman Rob Nelson picked up the slack. Nelson cracked 32 home runs and drove in 97 runs to lead the Stars in those categories. Stan Javier put together his second straight impressive Double-A campaign. The 20 year-old centerfielder hit .284 with 9 home runs, 62 RBIs, 113 walks, 61 stolen bases and covered centerfield like a tarp. Javier's running-mate, Luis Polonia, also turned in an impressive performance. He hit .289 with a league-leading 18 triples and stole 39 bases. Terry Steinbach, who played first, third, outfield and catcher, as well as DH, hit .279 with 9 home runs, 31 doubles, 71 RBIs and led the team in GW RBIs with 9. Utilityman Ray Thoma played third, short, second and outfield while hitting .265 with 11 homers and 55 RBIs. Leading the pitching was Eric Plunk who went 8-2 with a 3.40 ERA, Darrel Akerfelds, who went 9-6 with a 3.46 ERA and Pete Kendrick, who went 6-4 with a 2.45 ERA. Tim Belcher had an up and down season and finished at 11-10 with a 4.69 ERA. Though he pitched in just five games because of injury, Todd Burns posted some impressive numbers. He was 3-1 with a 1.19 ERA. In the relief department, Scott Whaley came through with a 2.95 ERA, 65 strikeouts and 28 walks in 85 innings. Wayne Giddings led the Stars with 12 saves.

MADISON MUSKIES (A): For the first time in their four-year history, the Muskies finished with a losing record, posting a 65-73 mark which was good for third place, 19½ games behind Northern Division champion Appleton. It was the second time the Muskies failed to make the playoffs. The team's bugaboo was poor hitting. The team batting average was .234. The top hitter was Mark Howie who hit .268 with 50 RBIs and was voted the team MVP. Before heading off to Huntsville, outfielder Bobby Gould gave the Muskies some good play. He hit .251 with five homers, 25 RBIs, 20 doubles and three triples. Second baseman John Kanter, though he had but a .232 average, added six homers, 44 RBIs and 25 doubles. Tony Arias led the team with 12 homers and 60 RBIs. Madison recieved a shot in the arm from Rocky Coyle, Brian Dorsett and Joe Kramer. Coyle hit .333 in 24 games before heading back to Double-A. Dorsett hit .267 with 30 RBIs in 40 games before he packed off. Kramer hit .290 with 7 home runs and 38 RBIs in 293 at-bats. Madison's strong suit was pitching in 1985. The team ERA was a respectable 3.60. Mark Leonette went 4-3 with a 2.09 ERA and 10 saves. In 73 innings, Leonette allowed just 61 hits while striking out 51 and walking 18. Darel Hansen went 4-7 with eight saves and a 2.62 ERA. Righthanded starters Russ Kibler and Todd Burns went 9-10 with a 3.44 ERA and 8-8 with a 3.59 ERA respectively. Also pitching well for Madison was Scott Sabo, who went 9-8 with a 3.85 ERA and Brian Criswell who went 8-11 with a 3.61 ERA.

MODESTO A's (A): Modesto came close to winning its third California League Championship, but lost two one-run games in the playoffs to spell their demise. Offensively, Modesto was well fortified. First baseman Jim Eppard finished the season with a league-high .345 batting average. The lefthanded swinger also led the league with 183 hits. He homered three times, hit 23 doubles and picked up 88 RBIs, the second highest total on the team. Modesto's leader in home runs and RBIs was third baseman Mark McGwire. The 6-5 slugger hit .274 with 24 home runs and 106 RBIs. Shortstop Brian Guinn turned in his best season to date. He hit .292 with seven home runs and 54 RBIs to go along with 42 steals. His double-play partner, Kevin Stock, also had a career-best season. The righthanded hitting second baseman hit .284 with eight home runs and 65 RBIs. Outfielder Bob Loscalzo was second on the team in hitting with a .318 average. He also hit 10 home runs, with 20 doubles, 63 RBIs and 22 steals. Steve Howard hit 14 home runs and had 64 RBIs in 349 at-bats. In the pitching department, lefthander Mike Fulmer posted a 6-5 record with a 3.15 ERA and 87 strikeouts in 105 innings. Doug Scherer was 6-7 with a 3.89 ERA. Oscar de Chavez was 10-5 with a 4.93 ERA. The two most successful pitchers for Modesto were Pete Kendrick and Rick Rodriguez. Kendrick went 9-4 with a 2.78 ERA. Rodriquez went 8-1 with a 3.30 ERA. In the Just Passing Through Department, Bill Mooneyham went 2-0 with 4 saves and a 1.26 ERA. In 14 innings, he gave up nine hits and struck out 13.

MEDFORD A's (A): What plagued Medford more than anything else in 1985 was picking up the baseball. Or rather, not picking it up. The club made 178 errors in 74 games and finished with a 33-41 slate, the worst record in the Oregon Division of the Northwest League. Medford also had its troubles in close games, losing 24 games by two or fewer runs and losing 17 one-run decisions. There were some positives, though. Third baseman Rich Martig led the team in hitting with a .313 batting average. He also clubbed eight homers, drove in 36 runs and smacked 15 doubles. Outfielder Andre Jacas was named the team's MVP for hitting .301 with nine doubles and 28 stolen bases. Heading the power department was first baseman Mike Duncan, who led the team with 11 homers, 52 RBIs, 14 doubles and 53 walks. He also was the team's top fielder, registering a .982 mark. Helping out with the long ball was utilityman Larry Arndt, who clubbed seven homers and 49 RBIs to go along with his .289 batting averge. Other hitters of note were Jerry Peguero, who hit .283 with 32 RBIs, Camillo Veras, who hit .266 with 29 RBIs and 18 steals and Amin David, who hit .273 with five home runs and 32 RBIs. The team's top pitcher was Jeff Shaver, who went 8-4 with a 2.54 ERA. In 95 innings, he struck out 81 and walked 48. Dave Otto, the A's number two draft choice last year, encountered a sore arm early in the season, but recovered to go 2-2 with a 3.83 ERA. Phil Cundari signed late, but then pitched effectively, posting a 3.62 ERA, striking out 51 and walking 26 in 59 innings. Scott Parrish, in his second season at Medford, went 3-3 with a 3.15 ERA, whiffing 45 batters in 45 innings. Wally Whitehurst, the A's third round pick last year, went 7-5 with a 3.58 ERA and 91 strikeouts in 88 innings before getting promoted to Modesto. Other notable pitchers for Medford were Blaine Deabenderfer, who struck out 10 and walked 11 in seven innings before going down with a sore arm, and William Perez, who posted a 2.70 ERA and struck out 35 in 36 innings.

POCATELLO (Rookie): 1985 was an altogether dreadful season for the Pocatello Gems as they came up with a 24-45 record, good for third place in the Pioneer League, 21½ games behind the league leader. However, there were several players who showed promise. First-round draft pick Walt Weiss hit .310 with 21 RBIs in 40 games with Pocatello before getting promoted to Modesto. Fifth-round pick Keith Wentz hit .273 with 25 RBIs. Sixth-round pick Steve Iannini hit .250 with 26 RBIs, and led the Gems in walks (38) and steals (11). Nelson Selverio hit .280 with 24 RBIs. Rounding out the top offensive performers was 18th round pick Scott Hyde who hit .263 with 22 RBIs. Bob Stocker, the 25th round pick, was the Gems' best pitcher as he posted a 2-6 record with a 2.85 ERA. Kevin Williamson, a 20th rounder, went 1-1 with a 2.87 ERA, and seventh-round selection Kirk McDonald went 1-8 with a 3.99 ERA.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

BRADLEY JAMES FISCHER

Born: Toledo, Ohio, June 28, 1956
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Height: 6-3 Weight: 198

Catcher in his playing career.

The Oakland organization and fans of the Double-A Huntsville Stars can only hope that Brad Fischer enjoys a repeat of his 1985 season in the 1986 season. Under Fischer's direction, the talented players of the Eastern League club went on to claim the league championship. The Stars finished in first place in the first half of the season, second in the second half and defeated Knoxville and Charlotte in the playoffs for the league title. Success is nothing new to Fischer. He led Medford to a league championship in 1981, Madison to a division championship in 1982 and into the playoffs in 1984. He was named Northwest League Manager of the Year in 1981. He played professionally just one year, that for Bend in 1978, but has appeared briefly for Madison in emergency situations in 1983 and 1984. Brad attended Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo and earned a B.S. degree in Industrial Education. As a senior, he hit .352 with 34 RBIs in 40 games. He was not drafted, but he signed with the A's in 1978 and hit .269 for Bend. He was out of baseball for a year before returning as a manager in 1980. He is a structural draftsman during the off-season.

DAVID MARK HUDGENS

Born: Oroville, California, December 5, 1956
Bats: Left Throws: Left
Height: 6-2 Weight: 200

Outfielder/First Baseman in his playing career.

Dave takes over the reigns of Oakland's Northwest League Medford A's club, which last year was under the direction of Grady Fuson, who resumes his scouting duties with the A's in 1986. Hudgens managed the A's Pocatello team in the Pioneer (Rookie) League in 1985, his first season as a minor league manager. Dave finished his playing days in 1984 as a player-coach for Albany in the Eastern League. Dave came to the A's after being released from the Cleveland organization in 1981. He hit .301 with 24 homers for Modesto in 1982 and .279 with 21 homers for Tacoma in 1983. At the end of 1983, he played in six games for Oakland, his only games as a major leaguer. He attended Arizona State for four years, majoring in Physical Education. During his stay in Tempe, he led the Sun Devils to two College World Series. In 1977, Dave hit .372 with 72 RBIs in 54 games. He was not drafted, but signed as a free agent with Cleveland following his collegiate career. He had been drafted twice before, by the Mets in January, 1975 (first round, fifth player chosen in the country) and by the Brewers in June, 1977.

KEITH LIEPPMAN

Born: Kansas City, Missouri, January 17, 1949
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Height: 6-3 Weight: 200

Infielder in his playing career.

Keith and his Tacoma team battled through a rash of injuries during the 1985 season and posted fourth- and third-place finishes in the split season. The 1986 campaign will be Keith's second at the helm of Oakland's Triple-A club. Lieppman capped a rapid rise through the A's farm system by accepting the Tacoma managing job for the 1985 season. At the beginning of 1983 he had been the manager for Idaho Falls in the rookie Pioneer League. But he leaped past Class-A to Double-A Albany in mid-1983, and the following year he led Albany to the best regular season record in the Eastern League. Keith began his managerial career at Modesto in 1980. He was Oakland's second round selection in the secondary phase of the January, 1971 free agent draft as a third baseman. He had been drafted twice before, by the Dodgers in 1967 and by the Braves in 1970. He spent nine years in the A's organization but never reached the majors. His best year was with Tucson of the Pacific Coast League in 1974 when he hit .321 with 17 doubles and 6 homers. Keith graduated from the University of Kansas with a B.A. degree in journalism. While at Kansas, he also played football and was a member of the Jayhawks' 1969 Orange Bowl squad.

JAMES WILLIAM NETTLES

Born: San Diego, California, March 2, 1947
Bats: Left Throws: Left
Height: 6-0 Weight: 190

Outfielder in his playing career.

Jim Nettles returns for his second consecutive year with the Madison Muskies of the Midwest (A) League in 1986. Though his team got off to an excellent start a year ago, Nettles' charges fell out of the race and were 65-73 at season's end, thanks largely to a weak offensive attack. Nettles took over the reins at Madison in 1985, a step up to Class-A after the better part of two seasons in rookie league. He took over at Idaho Falls in the middle of 1983 for Keith Lieppman, who moved up to Double-A Albany. He was signed by the A's as a free agent outfielder in 1981 and hit .241 in 108 games at Tacoma that year. He also played in his one and only game for Oakland but did not get an at-bat. He began the next season at Tacoma, but after five games decided to retire and become a full time coach for the Tigers. It was from this position that he was promoted to Idaho Falls. Jim attended San Diego State University for three years before signing with Minnesota as the Twins' fourth pick in the June, 1968 free agent draft. He made his big league debut for the Twins in 1970 and spent most of the next two years on the Twins' roster. But it was back to the minors in 1973, although he did play in 43 games for Detroit in 1974. He spent 1975 in Japan and 1976 in Mexico, but returned to the States and the minors in 1976. He played for Columbus and Omaha from 1977 through 1980 until joining the A's organization in 1981. His older brother, Graig, is a third baseman for the San Diego Padres.

TOMMIE D. REYNOLDS

Born: Arizona, Louisiana, August 15, 1941
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Height: 6-2 Weight: 190

Outfielder in his playing career.

Tommie makes his minor league managing debut with the Modesto A's in 1986, his first year in the Oakland organization in 17 years. Tommie had two previous stints with the A's, first playing for the Kansas City Athletics in 1963-65 and returning to the club after its move to Oakland for the 1969 season. Tommie played baseball and football at Lincoln High in San Diego and was named to the All-City baseball team for two years. After a brief stint in college Tommie soon found himself in the major leagues with the Kansas City A's in 1963. Tommie appeared in just eight games for the A's that year before seeing action in 31 minor league contests in 1964 and 90 games in 1965. After a stop in New York for the 1967 season with the Yankees, Tommie found himself in Oakland for the 1969 season. In 107 games, Tommie hit a career-high .257 with two homers (tying his career-best) and 51 RBIs, also a high-water mark. Tommie spent the 1970-71 seasons with the California Angels and saw his last major league service with the Milwaukee Brewers in 1972. Tommie remained in the Milwaukee system through the 1978 season, closing out his stint with the organization as a player-coach for the Spokane affiliate in the 1977-78 seasons. From 1981 through 1985, Tommie served as a roving minor league hitting instructor for the Chicago White Sox.

A's ON THE AIR

Bill King, Director of Broadcast Operations, enters his sixth year of play-by-play for the A's. In addition to his work with the A's, Bill is the voice of the Los Angeles Raiders. His work with the Raiders began in 1966 and it has included four Super Bowls. From 1962 through the 1982-83 season King was the play-by- play voice of the NBA Golden State Warriors. His style of broadcasting combines knowledge of the game with a special ability to paint word pictures which bring the radio listeners right into the action. King has his sport broadcast origins in baseball. He played semi-pro baseball as a youngster in the mid-west and his first play-by-play job was for a club in Pekin, Illinois in 1948. In addition to his radio work, Bill will team with Lon Simmons and Ted Robinson to cover the action on the A's television network.

Lon Simmons begins his sixth year of play-by-play for the A's in 1985. Prior to joining the A's in 1981, Lon was well known in the Bay Area for play-by-play work with the San Francisco Giants and the San Francisco 49ers of the NFL. A native of Glendale, California, Lon was a high school three sport star in track, football and baseball. He signed a professional contract with the Philadelphia Phillies, but an injury cut short his promising pitching career after just two seasons in the minor leagues. His sportcasting career took him from Fresno to San Francisco in 1958 when major league baseball came out west. Lon paired with Russ Hodges to form one of the top announcing teams in the game. It was at this same time that Lon was adding to his substantial reputation with play-by-play work for the NFL 49ers. Lon will team with Bill King on the A's radio network, and with King and Ted Robinson on the television broadcasts.

Ted Robinson returns with KPIX this season to the A's television broadcast team. Robinson, Sports Director at KCBS radio in San Francisco, will team up in the booth with Lon Simmons and Bill King as he did in 1985. A knowledgeable fan of all sports, Robinson has handled play-by-play for hockey, baseball, basketball and football. Locally, Robinson has covered the A's, the Golden State Warriors, the San Francisco 49ers, San Jose State football, and Stanford football and basketball. Robinson, 30, was born in New York and graduated from the University of Notre Dame. He began his career broadcasting hockey in South Bend, Indiana. In 1980, Robinson took a job with the A's sharing duty as promotions director and announcer. The following year he was hired to announce Minnesota North Stars hockey. After a stint in Cincinnati as a sports talk show host, Robinson was hired by KCBS in August 1982.

Amaury Pi-Gonzalez (left) and Julio Gonzalez (right) comprise the A's Spanish-speaking broadcast team and will be announcing A's games for the sixth straight year.

Amaury was born in Cuba but moved to Florida in 1961. He attended the University of Miami and did Spanish sportscasts for Miami's WFAB radio. He then moved north and wrote for Spanish newspapers in the New York area. Switching coasts, he came to the Bay Area in 1970 and has since become the area's premier Spanish language sportscaster. He has covered the World Series, Super Bowls, boxing, basketball and soccer for Spanish Radio, and he maintains a selected correspondent status with Spanish stations and newspapers outside the Bay Area. He covered the 1985 National League playoffs for CBS radio in Spanish. Julio was born and raised in Nicaragua but came to the states in 1957. He began doing radio work as a teenager in 1962 for a Palo Alto station and has since done Spanish simulcasts for Channel 5 and been sports director for Channel 20. He now runs his own travel service in San Francisco.
